

Electricals

Shelving Solutions provides Home Entertainment and Electricals display equipment to some of the largest retailers in the UK, from grocery multiples non-food offers to independent specialists. Whether you are seeking to display the latest mobile device on a bespoke POP unit or you need a heavy rack for a washing machine display, we are sure to have a solution.

We are able to tailor our product offering to our customer's needs when our existing solutions do not meet their requirements.

We also offer a range of solutions for merchandising CDs, DVDs and games, and can provide specialist equipment such as download points and listening posts.
